of Great Brito

LIEEN's Famous Progress, leder to Routhat Night suppor

Her Majesty's Royal Journey to the BALH, and happy Reruin.

With the most Remarkable Particulars of Her Royal Entertainment at Oxford, and Glotious and Triumphant Reception at the Barb, and all other places going and coming shellers. Her liberal Bounty to the Poor, and touching many of the Boils As also how 200 Pregins cleatified in white, mer the Quent, with Bows and Arrows by their Sides , with the Number of Shepherds that met her Majely in her return, with their Gooks and Tarloans, Singing and Playing on Pipes of Reeds &c. As also a great Number of Spinners with their Country Wheels, Dancing and Singing by Her Majelly: Courts, and how the Queen was graciously pleased to Reward them with her Charitable Bounty.

To which is added,

Several Ingenious Poems and Veries, spoken to Her Majelly at Oxford, &cc. by Perlons of great Quality; with Her Ma-jelly's Gracious Speech to the University.

London, Printed for 7. 17. near Fleet fleet. 1702

The Quien's Ros Progress, &c.

N August the 26 in the Morning the Queen fer out from Windfor, for the Bath, in Order for Oxford that Night; upon which news, that University took care to receive Her Majesty with the greatest splendor imaginable, and the Vice Chancellor Doctors and Mafters in their Robes met Her on Horse-back in their Robes some distance from Oxford; where the Earl of Abington Lord Lieutenant of that County with the high Shreiffs and Principal Gentlemen Ge. had conducted Her Majesty from the Borderse After Her Majefty's entrance, Dector Monder the Vice Chance Hor in the Name of the University addressed himself to Her by a Loyal Speech, and they all waited on her to her Court at Christ Church; As Her Majesty entred her Lodgings the Dean at the Head of the Cannons paid his Duty to her in English, and to his Royal Highnels in Latin, and inHer Room by Mr. Harcourt Son to Soliciter General in very fine English Verse as follows (viz.) olls & A ...

Hen baughty Monarchs their proud State expose,
And Majesty an awful Greatness shows.
Their Subjects, Madam, with amazement seized,
Gaze at the Pomp, rather surprized than pleased.
But your more gentle Instructed imparts
Wonder at once, and Pleasure to our Hearts. T
Where e're you come Foy shines in ev'ry Face,
Such winning Goodness, such an easy Grace,
Through all your Realms diffusive Kindness pours,
That ev'ry ENGLISH Heart's entirely yours.
The Mules Sons with eager transport view,
Their long desponding Hopes revived in Tou,
The Mules Sons to Monarchy ever true

These happy Walls by Royal Beauty plac'd,
Often with Royal Presence have been Grac'd.
Here Kings to ease the Cares attend a Grown,
Preserr'd the Muses Lawrels to their Own.
And here You once enjoy'd a safe Retreat,
From Noise and Envy free: To this lov'd Seat,
To be a Guest, You then did condescend,
Which now, its happy Guardian, You defend.

To be a Guest, You then did condescend,
Which now, its happy Guardian, You desend.
OXFORD, with Joy, beholds the Royal PATR,
And finds her Muses are her Prince's Care.
May we presume to Claim a nearer The;
They are Tour Subjects, We Your Family.
Accept the DUTT then We doubly Owe,
We share Your Presence, and Protection too.
So when great JOVE within the Country Cell,
Of humble pious Baucis means to dwell,
The bountcome God Frat'd her with Gifts Divine,
And where he found his Refuge, fix'd his Shrine.

To the QUEEN at Supper.

Spoke by Mr. Finch, Son to the Hon. Henach Finch, Efg.

And clog that Triumph which we mean to grace,
To view shot QUEEN that frees us from Alarms,
Secures our Quiet, and directs our Arms.
ENGLAND before its ruin'd Trade deplor'd.
A mourning Victor, and disputed Lord.
Now moulding Fleets in Gallick Harbours ly,
Whilst British Ships their double World defy.
Our Muses hear the Battles from afar,
And sing the Triumphs, and enjoy the War.
This now, but soon the quivering Spear they'l weild,
And lead the Shouting Squadrons to the Field.
They'l serve that Princess whom before they sung,
Defend that QUEEN beneath whose Eye they sprung.
So spreading Oaks from lovely WINDSOR born,
Shall shelter BRITAIN, which they now adorn
With swelling Sails o're distant Seas they'l go,

Then the University having again presented their Duty and thanks by their Orace, Her Ma-

Jesty was Graciously pleased to express the felt in this manner.

Mr. Vice Chancellor and Genelemen say gond has sliel and mer?

Am very glad of this Occasion of Affiring you of my Favour and Protection, and take these marks of your Duty and affection to me very kindly. I shall always have a Particular regard to this great Body that is so considerable in it self and so useful bock to Church and State.

From the Convocation House Her Majesty went to the Theater where a Confort of Pacal and Inframental Musick was performed, and curious Poems were expressed by Mr. Oately and Mr. Elfoff Gentlemen Commoner of Bahiol Colledge and Mr. Billion Gentleman Commoner of New Galledge: where being attended there with all the splendour, Trylumph, Solemnity, and Respect that becomes a Dutiful and Loyal People to their Gracious Soveraign, Great Numbers of Persons of all Sexes, Ages, Degrees and Qualities Crowding trom all Parts of that Famous University and parts Adjacent to behold Her Majesty's Royal Person.

Her Majesty was pleas'd to receive from the University the usual Presents being the Bible and Common Prayer Sook and a Rich Pair of Gloves, with a Gracious condescnetion and Satisfaction; and on Thursday the 27th of August Her Majesty set out from Oxford being attended by the Earl of August to and several of the Gentlemen of that County to the utmost bounds of it; and then was by Samuel Ecclin Esq., High Sherif of the County of Glou-

Glocester on the Borders of that Country, where the Right Honourable John How Esq. met Head Majesty and was received very Gracionsly, and the same Night at Circuciller at the House of Thomas Masters Esq., where Her Majesty Lodged and conferred on him the Honour of Knight-bood:

About 8 in the Evening, Her wajelly artivel in the City of Both, having been met by Samuel Robbert Ele, with a splendid Train, within a Mile of that place, and within half a Mile of the place, a Great Company of Citizens cloathed like Granadiers; and after them about 200 Virgins in two Companies richly agerd, many of them Apparellid like Amazons with Bows and Arrays, and some with Guile Scepters and Enligns of the Regalia in their Hands, all of them with a fet of Dancers who anced by the fide of Her Majesties Coach as she pass'd along attending Hen I ajesty to the West Gate of the City; where they were received by the Mayor, and Corporation in their Formalities ; the Mayor making a Loyal speceb to Her with the greatest Joy and Acclamation as ever was kn mn in the memory of Man, with the City Musick and the two Companies of Maids, all the freets being Illuminated and a great Number of Plambeaux were carried before, and on each fide of her Majelly's Coach: being come to Her Majellies Ledging, the Ma or and Corporation mere there Graci-oufly received and bad the Honour of Kiffing- Her Majesties Hand, and a Flage with St. Georges Cross was display don the Tower; the Bells Ringing in all the Churches of the City, and the greatest Demon-Stration of Joy shot ever was known, Making bing beard in the freet but Long Live Ducen Anne; not only by the Inhabitants but by the Country People who cramled from all Parts to fee Her Majefly. During

During Her Majesty's stay there, she was pleased to touch several Languishing Persons of the Evil, a great many coming thither upon that Account, who being veined by Her Majesty Physitian, such as was found afflicted with that Distemper received Tickets according to the usual Custome, and was admitted, and touched by Her Majesty, who was Graciousty pleased to order them the usual Bounty on that occasion; and bestowed large Gifts on Poor aged People both there, and all other Places through which Her Majesty made Her Progress, to the great Joy and Admiration of all Her Loving Subjects.

On the 8th of October, Her Majasty with his Royal Highness, after fix Weeks stay at the Bath, left that place about 9 in the Morning, being attended by the Mayor, one of the Representatives in Parliament, the Aldermen and Common-Councel to the North-Gate, from whence the Sherriffs and his Men waited on her Majesty to the Confines of Somerfetsbire; the Corporation having some time before presented her Majesty with a Silver Guilt Cup, with a Cover and Salver, all in a Rich Case of Crimson Velver laid with Gold. and having waited every Sunday on her Majesty to Church in their Formalities, did now in a most Solemn manuer, express their Duty to her Majefly and his Royal Highn: fi, wishing them a happy Journey: After which the Corporation was invited by the Mayor to his House, where they drank chearfully her Majesty and the Princes Haalths; who seem'd well pleased with their Reception in the City, and that the Waters had much contributed to their Health,

The same day her Majesty and her Royal Artendance passed over the Downs in Wilishire, where they were met by a great Number of Shepherds from all parts of the Country, all dressed in their long coarse white Cloaks, with their Grooks, Shepberds Scrips and Tar-boxes, playing all the way they march'd upon their Pipes of Reeds, humbly prefenting themselves to her Maj sty; who was pleased to hear their Country Songs and Mulick, with a great deal of Satisfaction, and as a demonthation of her Royal Acceptance of their Dury, was pleased as a mark of her condescending Goodness and Bounty) to give 20 or 30 Guineas among 'em, which they receiv'd with acknowledgments of loud and repeated Prayers and Acclama-tions for her Majesty's long Lite and Prosperity: after which a great Number of Spinners with their Spinning-Wheels, prefented themselves before her Mojely, and were favourably received, and tafted very liberally of her Majestys Bounty.

At Marlborough, as her Maesty return'd home, the was splendidly received with all possible demonstrations of Joy, being met by the Sociollars of the Free-School on the Common, who in Shepherds Dress, entertain'd ber Majefly with the following Verfes.

Spoken by Tityrus.

Welcom, great Guardian of our Flocks,
From roaming Wolfe, and cunning Fox.
What fitter offering can we make,
For m to give, or you to take,
Than Rayal Oak, that facred Tree
To Jove and your great Family?

Spaken by Thyrfis.

Accept our Chaplets, Crooks, and Reeds, Our Artiefs Songs and Rural Woods; Which we with humble Pride have Arest, Indican the Eyes of the green Quist. And well actual and I
I heard greet Fan, ence smiling last, and hallog and the Go Shipherds, set your Flories alreay,
Tour Lands may wanten, while they good, it was a series
I'll heer these one whole day from harden to anter the court

After which the Mayor and Aldermen angresis's ben Majest, in the Lown-Hall, where the Town-Clerk address her Majesty in a very Loyal Speech, and her Majesty mas thence conducted to his Greec the Duke of Sometics a fleuse, next Morning as him Majesty passed in the Free-School, was hung out these under a Canopi of Garlands, and a Rich Garnet, wherein was a illreath of Layrel between the Crowns of Engine was a illreath of Layrel between the Crowns of Engine gland.

On the 121b the Lord Mator and Court of Aldernia mated an then Majelli at Kenlington, to Congratulate Hen Arrival from the Bath: at which time Sir, Lathiel Lovel Recorder, made a moli Learned and Loyal speech to Her Majelly in the Conclusion of which, invited Her Majelly to fromour the City with his presence, at Dinner on the Lord Niavo's Day, the which builtation Her Majelly was Gracicusto pleas a to accept. After which they waited on His Royal Highnals, Prince George of Dentroatk and made the like Complement to Him; who was pleas a to accept of the same survivation; since which all chings are getting ready in the City of London, without in maginable Diligence; in Order for Her Majelli's Reception; as ally several Posture and Rich Pageants to adorn the solumnity, so that her Majelli's fassage through this Honourable and Recommed City, while to be very Glerione, Splendid and Charming, the exceeding and Lord Mator's Some for more figer page.

FINAS and the street